

Sterile Supply Attendant Services at William Beaumont Army Medical Center (WBAMC), Central Material Service (CMS) and any of its outlying clinics located at Fort Bliss, Texas. WBAMC will also be referred to as the Medical Treatment Facility (MTF).

QUALIFICATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS: Sterile Supply Attendant Services

Qualifications. CPs providing these services shall, at a minimum:

- Be a graduate of an accredited program of instruction (ex. CBSPD or CRCST certifications) or a military training program for sterile processing of reusable medical equipment/sterile processing technician/or surgical technician and have at least six months of full-time experience within the last two years performing the tasks described in paragraph 8 of this performance work statement OR
- In lieu of the training and experience listed in item above, shall have a minimum of 24-months of full-time experience within the last three years performing the tasks described in paragraph 8 of this performance work statement.

Requirements.

- CP shall be a U.S. citizen or otherwise meet the requirements of AR 25-2, Information Assurance.
- CP shall not have been convicted of a felony.
- CP shall successfully complete a criminal history background check in accordance with paragraph 9.4., of this performance work statement (PWS).
- CP shall be capable of independently lifting objects weighing as much as 40 pounds.
- Have and maintain current Basic Life Support (BLS) certification. The American Heart Association Basic Life Support for Healthcare Providers is the only program accepted. BLS recertification shall be maintained in a current status at all times while the CP is performing services under this contract.
- CP shall be able to read, write, and speak English in a grammatically correct manner and enunciate with sufficient clarity to effectively communicate with patients and other health care providers.
- CP shall demonstrate ability to apply critical thinking skills and possess organization, problem-solving and communication skills.
- CP shall possess sufficient initiative, interpersonal relationship skills and social sensitivity such that he/she can relate constructively to a variety of patients from diverse backgrounds.
- CP shall possess the ability to operate a personal computer utilizing Microsoft applications, such as Internet Explorer, Outlook, Access, Word, Excel, etc.
- CP shall use the various clinical automation systems as required, such as, but not limited to Composite Health Care System (CHCS), Armed Forces Health Longitudinal Technology Application (AHLTA), Ambulatory Data System (ADS), and Defense Medical Human Resource System – internet (DMHRSi).