

Full Job Description

Currently recruiting a full-time night Registered Nurse (RN) IV Intensive Care Unit (COVID) in San Antonio, Texas, to work in a 179-bed facility that provides comprehensive services to include emergency care, cardiovascular care, cancer care, and orthopedic surgery. The hospital has earned the Primary Stroke Center certification by the AHA.

Job Responsibilities of the COVID ICU RN:

- Assessment: Conduct comprehensive, timely, and ongoing focused physical, psycho-social and pain assessments; includes assessment of patient education needs.
- Planning: Utilizes the assessment, identifies problems, makes nursing diagnoses and formulates goals, teaching plans and outcomes to create an individualized plan of care.
- Evaluation/Reassessment: Consistently conducts timely evaluation, anticipates and recognizes changes in patient conditions, determines when reassessments are needed and adjusts the plan of care accordingly. Compares expected and achieves outcomes of nursing care utilizing the plan of care.
- Communicates effectively with peers, supervisors, ancillary department, and other customers.

Qualifications and Education for the COVID ICU RN:

- Graduate from an accredited diploma, associates, or bachelor s degree nursing program.
- RN license to practice in the state of Texas.
- BLS healthcare provider.
- 2 years of clinical experience as an RN and 2 years of experience in the ICU.

Compensation and Benefits for the COVID ICU RN:

- Salary: $25.28-$37.95, depends on experience.
- Sign on bonus up to $15k and relo up to $5k.
- PTO starting at 4 weeks per year.
- Tuition reimbursement of up to $5, 250 per year.
- Low cost medical, dental, life, and vision options.
- LTD, STD, flexible spending accounts, employee stock purchase program, plus many other outstanding benefits.