

Full Job Description

Currently recruiting a full-time night shift Registered Nurse IV (RN) Lung Rescue Intensive Care Unit in San Antonio, Texas to work at the #1 ranked hospital in the area. The hospital has over 1000 beds and they offer a broad range of services from cardiology, bone marrow transplant, emergency medicine, and many, many more.

Job Responsibilities of the Lung Rescue ICU RN:

- Consistently apply the nursing process, critical thinking skills, scientific judgment, technical skills and leadership to independently deliver safe nursing care to patients.
- Collaborating with the patient care team to achieve quality patient outcomes
- Communication, confidence, and professionalism as evidenced by active engagement in unit and organizational activities
- Demonstrate team work, adaptability, and serving as a resource to the patient care team
- Accountability for delivering quality nursing care services and promoting a positive image of nursing

Qualifications & Education for the Lung Rescue ICU RN:

- Graduate of an accredited diploma, associates, or baccalaureate degree nursing program.
- Current RN License in the State of Texas or Multi-State Compact License (Employees with RN Compact License are required to obtain Texas RN License within 90 days of hire date)
- Current American Heart Association BLS Certification
- BSN preferred
- 2 years of experience

Compensation and Benefits for the Lung Rescue ICU RN:

- Salary: $26.79-$37.95 per hour, depending on years of experience.
- Sign on Bonus up to $10, 000 (based on years of experience) and relocation assistance offered up to $5, 000 for qualifying candidates
- Matching 401(k) contributions ranging from 3-9%.
- PTO starting at 4 weeks per year.
- Tuition reimbursement of up to $5, 250 per year.
- Low cost medical, dental, life, and vision options.
- LTD, STD, flexible spending accounts, employee stock purchase program, plus many other outstanding benefits.